

Universal Class Online Learning Courses

This exciting new learning package offers all Slough Libraries' members free access to over 350 online courses.

There is a fantastic range of topics, from hobbies to technology, business skills to health. As the courses are free, there's no risk – try something you've always wanted to, or something you've never thought of! You can register for up to 5 courses at once, and there's no commitment on a course if you change your mind.

You can learn in your own time and at your own pace – you have 6 months to complete each course, so there's no need to panic over deadlines. The courses can be completed on home or library computers – each involves video based learning with written transcripts. You will complete assignments and exercises, and receive a certificate of completion to demonstrate what you've achieved.

The course are available online 24 hours a day, so fit well into busy schedules, whether that's college, work, childcare, or a combination of the three! You will also have access to a real online tutor, who will assess your work and be available to answer your questions, making sure you have the support you need.

Registration is quick and easy, so sign up today and take a look at the full range of course available.
