

Picture books for babies, toddlers & young children

Slough Libraries Website

Time for a Rhyme

Nursery Rhymes are a fabulous way to introduce language to babies and help toddlers increase their vocabulary but most importantly of all they are FUN – so get started today with one of these fabulous nursery rhyme books

Incy Wincy Spider
by Emma Dodd

Clare Beaton's Animal Rhymes
by Clare Beaton

Usborne Action Rhymes
by Giuliana Gregori

Mockingbird Song
by Carol Thompson

Over the Moon
by David Melling

Baa baa black sheep and friends
by Sarah Parkin

Old MacDonald
had a Zoo
by Curtis Jobling

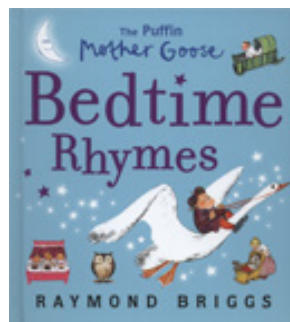

The Cat and the Fiddle
by Jackie Morris

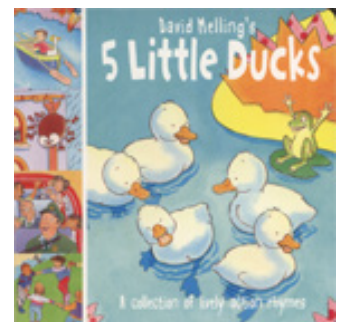

The Wheels on the Bus
by Fhiona Galloway

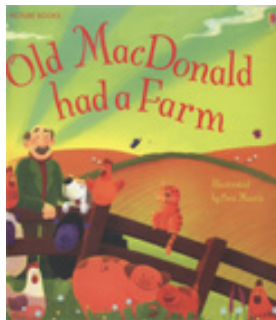

Head, Shoulders,
Knees and Toes
by Brian Moses

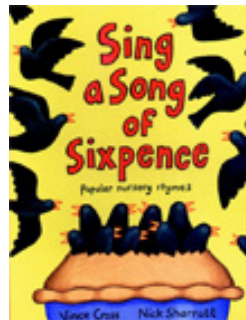

The Puffin Mother Goose
Bedtime Rhymes
by Raymond Briggs

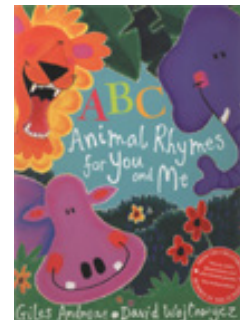

5 Little Ducks
by David Melling

Old MacDonald
had a Farm
by Lesley Sims

Sing a Song of Sixpence
by Vince Cross

ABC Animal Rhymes
for You and for Me
by Giles Andreae
and David Wojtowycz