Guidance Notes

Liable Persons

The people responsible for paying the Council Tax are chosen, in order of priority, from the following residents:-

- Freeholders
- Leaseholders
- Tenants
- Contractual Licence Holders
- Other Residents

It should be that person who completes the details required overleaf.

Discounts

The Council Tax Law assumes that two adults live in each dwelling. If there are more the bill will not be increased but if there are fewer it may be reduced - by 25% if only one adult lives in the dwelling.

When we count the number of adult residents certain people, although actually living in the dwelling are disregarded for Council Tax purposes. Examples of these are:- the severely mentally impaired, people in respect of whom child benefit is paid, students, people living in nursing homes or hospitals etc. Thus

- i one adult resident - 25% Discount
- ii one countable resident all others being disregarded - 25% Discount
- iii more than one adult resident where all are disregarded - 50% Discount
- iv one adult resident who is disregarded - 50%

Application forms for discounts disregards are available upon request, please telephone the enquiry number quoted overleaf.

This form refers to category i only. For ii - iv please telephone the enquiry number quoted overleaf.
