

Support and Advice

- * Support for you to make informed choices about any aspect of your life
- * Access to early help for concerns and problems you may have including areas such as emotional wellbeing, relationships, sexual health and substance misuse
- * Personal, social and health education group work to enhance self esteem, confidence, aspiration and achievement to improve life chances
- * Support for you to lead healthy lifestyles
- * Support for you if you feel unsafe

Jobs and Learning

Support for you to secure employment and or training including * opportunities such as work experience and volunteering

Your opportunities to gain knowledge, skills and qualifications through * good quality schools, FE colleges and a variety of youth support services

Things to do

- * A range of easy to access positive youth activities for you including sports, music and arts in the community
- * Your access to safe places and youth projects offering personal and social development opportunities

Youth Voice

Strong and meaningful youth voice opportunities * encouraging you to be active citizens

Enabling you to influence services for * young people and the wider community

Your elected Youth Parliament *

YOUTH OFFER

WHAT IT

LOOKS

LIKE

Support and Advice

Access to 1:1 support, group work and drop in Information, Advice and Guidance sessions at multiple venues in Slough.

Things to do

Easy to find information about a range of local activities and services including youth projects, sports provision, leisure facilities, arts, dance and music projects.

Jobs and Learning

Access to 1:1 support, group work to improve your employability skills, including job clubs at multiple venues in Slough. A range of drop-in sessions providing careers advice at local venues.

Access to libraries and cultural spaces like The Curve and Slough Museum.

Youth Voice

Voluntary action within your local community or across Slough including an elected Youth Parliament, Young Inspectors auditing services, Young Commissioners helping to design services and influence decisions about who provides these.

A wide range of consultation activities including opportunities for user feedback.

We want all our young people growing up in Slough to enjoy life, achieve through learning, be proud of where they live and be valuable members of the community