HAVE YOUR SAY

SEGRO and Slough Borough Council is set to launch a public consultation for the proposed renewal of the Simplified Planning Zone (SPZ) on the Slough Trading Estate which is due to expire in 2014. The consultation will start on Friday 10th January and run to Friday 21st February 2014.

The SPZ grants advance planning permission for certain types of development within a designated area over a period of 10 years. Development proposed within the site during this period would not require a separate planning application subject to meeting conditions agreed with Slough Borough Council beforehand.

Founded in 1920, the Slough Trading Estate is home to 400 companies employing some 17,500 people and has benefited from the SPZ since 1994 helping to deliver jobs and growth in the region.

WE WILL BE RUNNING TWO PUBLIC EXHIBITION EVENTS TO PRESENT THE SPZ.

DATES:

Wednesday 22nd January 2014,
