6. The Council will be considering in due course whether to replace this experimental Order with a permanent one having the same effects. Anyone wishing to object to such a permanent Order may do so within six months of the day on which the experimental Order came into force. Any such objection must be made in writing, stating the grounds on which it is made, and be sent to the address below or emailed to parking.consultations@slough.gov.uk.
7. The Order provides that in pursuance of Section 10(2) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, the delegated authority of Slough Borough Council, or some person authorised in that behalf, may if it appears essential in the interests of the expeditious, convenient and safe movement of traffic or for preserving or improving the amenities of the area through which any road affected by the Order runs, modify or suspend the Order or any provision thereof.

8. Any person wishing to question the validity of the Order, or of any provision contained in it, on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Act, or that any requirement of the Act or of any regulations made under the Act has not been complied with may, within 6 weeks from the date on which the Order was made, apply to the High Court for this purpose.
